

---

COPRA

PRODUCT CODE – PTS/COP/001

---

Overview

Copra is the dried white flesh of the coconut from which coconut oil is extracted. Making Copra: removing the shell, breaking the nut, drying usually done where the coconut palm grows. Copra can be made by smoke drying, sun drying or kiln drying.

Specifications

- General
  - ✓ Type : Sun dried Copra (White Copra)
- Analytical
  - ✓ Moisture Content : 5% Max
  - ✓ Low FFA : 1% Max
  - ✓ Oil content: min. 75%
  - ✓ Clean, no fungus

ADDRESS

PT SARASWATI
Menara Batavia, Lt. 14
Jl. KH. Mas Mansyur
Kav. 126 Karet Tengsin,
Tanah Abang, Jakarta Pusat
(62) 21-572-3753, 21-572-7401

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

Indonesia

METHOD OF PRODUCTION

Traditionally, white Copra is produced by Sun drying mature nuts.

Commercially white Copra is produced by drying mature coconuts in ovens or dryers under controlled conditions.